EXPANSION OF FCFL CONFIRMED

Oh Cherry Cherry Baby

2018 for Daly Cherry-Evans was eventful. Named inaugural captain of 100n80 after being drafted by Nevan Clarkson, he was cut loose before being recalled just before the finals series.

With FCFL expanding, all players are now free agents, and this puts DCE (picture on left with internet sensation Daddy Long Neck) in an awkward position for 2019.

“ I think I’ve improved my draft position with my displays at the end of 2018” says the brash 30 year old. “Whoever drafts me won’t regret it”

Allawah, NSW

Chairman Darren Bevan is excited, his little baby is all grown up, and about to hit the big time.

FCFL was a hit in its first debut year 2018, and now it’s about to kick off with an expansion, just how many sides remains to be seen.

Three new teams have entered, with Papatoetoe Prianhas (formerly 100n80, Eeely Avengers, Basic B!tches and current champions Dazzlers Dingoes all returning..

Rosebery Rampage will be coached by Jeremy Barton, Balmain Tigers return from the wilderness coached by Ed “Big ‘Ed” Kiel and Grub coached by Josh.

A league of 8 teams was expected, and a few offers remain on the table.

A second team out of New Zealand could be on the cards, with Nevan Clarkson negotiating with several teams at present. He is also still in negotiations with a side that is based in Bondi NSW.

The expansion looming, it throws a spanner in the works for the original Gang of 4.

All players are now free agents, this means talents such as Cameron “Referee” Smith, Damien “Captain” Cook and Tom “HEY YOU GUYS...” Trbojevich, could all end up in completely different teams to 2018.

One bonus is the snake draft, So each team gets a fair crack at securing a decent squad.
