OLD FOES AND NEW RIVALRIES KICK OFF 2019 SEASON

DINGOES BECOME FIRST PROFESSIONAL CLUB

Darren Bevan wasted no time in setting the standard in 2019. After winning the inaugural FCFL title, Bevan took his club to a new level.

"Oh I knew what I was going to do with the winnings" says the 38 year old genius. "A professional look was what I wanted, and without sponsorship I invested the sum of $11 (NZ$4.75) into a new logo.

"If you look good, and you feel good, you should ultimately play good".

The Piranhas are hoping this isn't true, as they are borrowing gear from a local side.

"I'm not sure if anyone is prepared to see Ryan James squeezing into an XL shirt which is the largest size we have" Says Papatotoe coach Nevan Clarkson. "But it is all we have and we will make do, I have faith we can go that one step further in 2019"

Sydney – The newly expanded First Crack Fantasy League kicks off in a matter of hours, and a few teams get to warm to their new surroundings.

The newly formed Balmain Tigers will host Rosebery Rampage. Now these coaches know each other well, and all are expecting this to become the First Cracks version of the Fibro v Silver tail rivalry of the 70's.

Dragons1015 will travel to Grubs in their first clash. This is also set to become a heated confrontation each game out. The Red and White hoops v the Red V.

The rebranded Piranhas travel across the ditch to face the Eely Avengers. Bevan-Kikau and Clarkson have history, and its all instigated from the Avengers mentor.

The most intriguing game is Dingo's v Bltches. Husband v Wife, and we all know not to piss of a Portuguese woman, So Chairman Bevan best take James Hetfield's advice and sleep with one eye open.

Who is it?

Which current FCFL coach was so excited with poaching another coaches first choice captain, that they have had the players portrait permanently inked on them? The teams face this weekend and things could get heated.
