

First Crack Chronicle

<http://firstcrackfantasy.com/>

FIRST CLASS JOURNALISM

- Since 2018

ROUGH START FOR FCFL CAPTAINS

TATTS SENSATIONAL

As reveled by the rumor mill last week, Joanne Bevan-Kikau has indeed been inked up.

The Avengers mentor was so over the moon with her negotiations to lure DCE to her club, she had it inked as a permanent reminder..

Knowing the Nevan Clarkson was keen to wrap up DCE and keep a similar spine to last season, we asked her what she thought the Piranhas head honcho thought of her tattoo.

“Stuff the prick” was her response. Pretty much as blunt as a butter knife

How she feels this week after his dismal performance is anyone's guess.

19/3/2019 – The first round of FCFL has turned out to be a nightmare for the majority of Coaches, with terrible Australian weather conditions playing a massive part of results.

Only Grubs, Dragons1015 reigning premier Dingoes registering a 100+ score with the captain. A few mistakes by captains were obvious also.

Lachlan Fitzgibbon was used instead of rule number 1 Damian Cook at the Piranhas, although the end result of a loss to the Avengers was inevitable.

Joanne Bevan-Kikau also made a less costly mistake. After poaching Daly Cherry-Evans from Clarkson's side, She elected to select him as captain to rub salt into the wound. This back fired with the lowest captains score of the round,

With Cherry-Evans only registering 44 points.

It was the Captains choice that ultimately lead the Dingoes to a narrow 748-657 over Basic B!tches.

Daren Bevan picking the ever reliable Jake Trbojevic (116) and a poor showing from a usually reliable Shaun Johnson (52), a swing either way and it would have been a completely different ball game.

In the final game, captains choice was irrelevant. Rosebery Rampage destroying rivals Balmain Tigers 788-599.

Both captains has a quiet night due to the poor weather as it limited the expansive game required by Latrell Mitchell and James Tedesco.

THE BACK PAGE

THE WAIVER WIRE... ALL THE TRADES IN AND OUT FOR ROUND 2

GRUBS – IN: Nathan Peats, OUT: Lachlan Lewis, IN: Mitchell Moses, OUT: Robbie Farah, IN: Will Chambers, OUT: Villame Kikau IN: John Asiata OUT: Paul Gallen, IN: Adam Keighran, OUT: Boyd Cordner.

PIRANHAS – IN: Kevin Proctor, OUT: Wade Graham, IN: James Tamau, OUT: Darius Boyd, IN: Robbie Farah, OUT: Issac Luke, IN: Solomone Kata, OUT: Robert Jennings, IN: Luke Bateman, OUT: Rhyse Martin.

DINGOES – IN: John Bateman, OUT: Ben Hampton

TIGERS – IN: Ash Taylor, OUT: Moses Mbye

B!TCHES – IN: Matt Gillett, OUT: Manase Fainu

DRAGONS – IN: Jordan Kahu, OUT: Mason Lino, IN: Kenneath Bromwich, OUT: Connor Watson

AVENGERS – No Trades or Wavers

He's gone full Clarkson, Never go FULL CLARKSON

Piranhas mentor Nevan Clarkson has lost his marbles. In a moment of panic, he has picked up reserve grader Luke Bateman instead of English cult hero John Bateman. John Bateman would never have made it to the Piranhas anyway, as the Dingoes were ahead of them on the Waiver.

Don "Cowboy" McLeod Player of the Year Tally

Tigers v Rampage - 3 - Corey Oates (Rampage) 2 – Roger Tuivasa-Sheck (Rampage) 1 – Adam Reynolds (Rampage).

Grubs v Dragons1015 - 3 – Jason Taumalolo (Dragons1015) 2- Cameron Murray (Dragons1015) 1 – Mitchell Moses (Grubs)

Dingoes v B!tches - 3 – Cameron Munster (Dingoes) 2 – Shaun Lane (B!tches) 1 – Michael Morgan (Dingoes)

Avengers v Piranhas - 3 – Addin Fonua-Blake (Avengers) 2 – William Hopoate (Piranhas) 1 – Paul Vaughan (Piranhas).

Corey Oates (Rampage)

Corey Oates (born 20 October 1994) is an Australian professional rugby league footballer who plays on the wing for the newly founded Rosebery Rampage.

Oates is known for his size, speed and line finding ability (Not to be confused with Corey Normans white line fever).

In his spare time he can be found at the Rosebery Hotel getting into a $10 Schnitzel and abusing the slow to compute unmanned TAB facilities.

